A â€˜Dirtyâ€™ Treat During Traditions

by Bend Weekly News Sources

Free concert featuring Stephanie Schneiderman and special guest at Sunriver Resort on Dec. 20.

Sunriver Resort will host a free fireside acoustic performance featuring Stephanie Schneiderman of Portlandâ€™s Dirty Martini with a very special guest, from 7 to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, December 20 in the Owlâ€™s Nest.

The Owlâ€™s Nest will offer drink specials all night, featuring Sunriver Resortâ€™s signature drink the â€œMarionberry Martiniâ€• and the classic â€œDirty Martini.â€• The Owlâ€™s Nest is open 4 p.m. to close.

Portland, Oregonâ€™s Stephanie Schneiderman has â€œexceptional song writing talent and radiating charm â€¦ her honest, earthy presence and rich, serene vocals separate Stephanie from the hordes of 'girls with guitars'," says Adam Zacks, Talent Buyer for House of Blues.

Schneiderman began her solo music debut in 1999 winning the grand prize in the Lilith Fair competition, earning a spot on the all-female lineup. She has also toured with some of the nationâ€™s top acts, including â€“ Hall and Oates, Five for Fighting, Chicago and Ben Taylor. Schneidermanâ€™s songs have been featured on WBâ€™s primetime show â€œJack and Jillâ€• and â€œFelicityâ€• and movie â€œKat and Allisonâ€• as the title track.

After a spontaneous Valentineâ€™s Day performance Schneiderman joined McKinley and Lara Michell to form Dirty Martini. This blissful union is one of Portlandâ€™s new buzz bands, described as the Northwestâ€™s own â€œCrosby, Stills and Nash-styled girl group.â€•

For more information about Stephanie Schneiderman and Dirty Martini visit www.stephanieschneiderman.com and www.dirtymartini.com. Call 541-593-4609 for more information about Schneidermanâ€™s performance at Sunriver Resort.

A â€˜Dirtyâ€™ Treat During Traditions by Bend Weekly News Sources