Two 13-year-old boys were arrested for ten counts each of second-degree criminal mischief after they allegedly caused $2,300 in damage to several fences, vehicles, sidewalks, and signs in northeast Redmond on Wednesday.

Redmond police officers responded to numerous complaints of black spray paint damage between Northeast Larch Avenue and Northeast Negus Way, from Northeast 5th to 7th Streets, said Lt. Brian McNaughton.

Police identified and arrested the two suspects who were lodged at the Deschutes County Juvenile Detention Center.
