

Home How-To: Water hammering

by Bob Kast

Water hammering is the sound of moving water being stopped abruptly by the closing of a valve, resulting in the weight of the water crashing against the faucet, valve or sidewalls of the pipe. Pressure reducing valve, expansion tank, expanded water, hot water, cold water, water heater

Home How-To: Water hammering by Bob Kast