Internationally known and locally grown musical talent The Booher Brothers will play a benefit concert on Oct. 28 at 7:00 pm at the La Pine High School Auditorium. The Booher Brothers will donate all proceeds from the evening event to the La Pine High School girls' basketball team. "It's a wonderful opportunity to give back to our community and to support this great women's basketball team," says 25-year-old fiddle and guitar player Brendan Booher. Booher says he's been playing music with his family for more than 21 years. The Booher Brothers play a benefit concert for La Pine High School girl's basketball team. "It's our desire to display a picture of the old fashioned American family with our musical show and we appreciate the opportunity to do so at La Pine High School," he adds. Booher says that he and his brothers will be playing a variety of musical styles from "cowboy" to gospel to swing. "It'll be an energetic performance for the whole family." Tickets for the show will be available at the door or prior to the show at La Pine High School or Spotted Mule Saddlery in Bend.
