

Missing Okla. woman's car found abandoned

by UPI

BETHANY, Okla. -- Police in Oklahoma have found the car belonging an expectant mother who hasn't been seen since Friday night. Lauren Barnes, 20 of Bethany, Okla., told her mother she was going out with a friend and was reported missing the following day. KOCO-TV in Oklahoma City said Tuesday that Barnes' car was discovered Sunday; however there was no reported sign of Barnes. Police noted Barnes didn't have her prescription blood-thinners with her when she left nor has there been any activity on her bank debit card, KOCO-TV reported.

Copyright © 2007, by United Press International. All Rights Reserved.

Missing Okla. woman's car found abandoned by UPI