

Insurgent video shows U.K. hostage in Iraq

by UPI

LONDON -- British officials are studying a new television video showing one of five Britons kidnapped in Baghdad last spring. The images of the hostage appeared Tuesday on satellite station al-Arabiya in a video provided by an insurgent group. A gang of kidnapers disguised as police officers abducted the hostages in May from the Iraqi Finance Ministry. The BBC said the name of the man seen on al-Arabiya was not released, but his family was notified. The video was dated Nov. 18 and demanded a British withdrawal from Iraq.

Copyright © 2007, by United Press International. All Rights Reserved.

Insurgent video shows U.K. hostage in Iraq by UPI