

Chartered plane crashes in Ukraine

by UPI

KIEV, Ukraine -- A chartered passenger plane flying from the Czech Republic to Ukraine has crashed near Kiev. The plane, carrying two pilots and four passengers, went down at about 7 p.m. Moscow time Sunday, ITAR-TASS reported. The plane reportedly belonged to a German airline and was flying from the Czech Republic to Ukraine through Poland.

Copyright © 2007, by United Press International. All Rights Reserved.

Chartered plane crashes in Ukraine by UPI