

Local Resort offers Fuel for Guests

by Bend Weekly News Sources

Mt. Bachelor Village Resort, Bend's luxury resort located within the city limits, announced today it will offer guests a complimentary $50 Shell gas card with every two night stay.

"Many of our guests come from the Pacific Northwest and northern California areas," said Michelle Marquis, Director of Sales and Marketing for the resort. "They generally come by car, and we want to find a way to help them subsidize their travel costs so that they can enjoy our spectacular region and full service resort."

The Free Fuel for Guests is one of the many package promotions the resort is currently offering. From outdoor adventure packages, to Spa getaways to discounted ski lift tickets to the Mt. Bachelor ski resort, your choices are many.

A Brooks Resources development, Mount Bachelor Village Resort is located on the road to Mt. Bachelor and offers a wide range of lodging accommodations including hotel rooms, condominiums and single-family homes.
