

Tour bus rolls, kills 7

by UPI

MEXICAN HAT, Utah -- A tour bus returning from a Colorado ski trip rolled over in Utah, killing seven and injuring 20 passengers, police said. The bus headed from Telluride, Colo., to Phoenix left Highway 163 Sunday evening near Mexican Hat, Utah, before rolling over, The Salt Lake Tribune said. At least 50 people were aboard the Arrow Stage Lines bus. Most passengers were returning from skiing in Telluride. Police were investigating the cause of the accident. Roads were wet, but not icy.

Copyright © 2007, by United Press International. All Rights Reserved.

Tour bus rolls, kills 7 by UPI