

ArchaeologyFest Film Series: Best of 2007

by Richard Pettigrew

ArchaeologyFest is an international film mini-series celebrating the wonders of human diversity, culture and environment. This documentary film series is now in the midst of its 2007-2008 program cycle, appearing in six communities across the state, including Bend.

The series is produced by Archaeological Legacy Institute of Eugene, Oregon, and co-sponsored for your enjoyment by Central Oregon Community College. You will have an opportunity to experience some of the world's finest heritage films about archaeology, the cultural legacy, and indigenous peoples and their world.

Please come see for yourself some of the many wonders of the human past. Ticket sales open at 6:30 PM at the door, and programs begin at 7:30, February 15/16/ and 22/23.

For more details, and to view descriptions and clips of the films, go to <http://www.archaeologychannel.org/content/TACfestival2007.shtml>

Date(s) of Event: February 15/16 and 22/23

Time of Event: 7:30pm

Location of Event: Room 0155, Boyle Education Center, Central Oregon Community College

ArchaeologyFest Film Series: Best of 2007 by Richard Pettigrew