

Bend-La Pine Schools Seeks Budget Committee Members

by Bend Weekly News Sources

The Bend-La Pine School District is looking for interested volunteers to fill two openings on the District Budget Committee. The three-year terms would expire on June 30, 2009. The Budget Committee works with the School Board to review and approve the budget for each school year. Budget Committee members are asked to attend five to six evening meetings, mostly in the spring, to review the proposed budget. To apply for the volunteer positions, send a letter of interest and resume to:
