

Police Seek Robber of Adult Book, Video Store

by Richard Burton

Bend Police are looking for a man who robbed an adult book, video and novelty store of an undisclosed amount of cash early Wednesday morning in northeast Bend, with the robber indicating he had a weapon.

Bend Police provided this image from the video security camera at Pleasure World, taken during the alleged robbery. Anyone with knowledge of this crime is asked to call 322.2960. The robber entered Pleasure World at 1843 NE Third Street shortly after midnight on November 22, demanded cash, and indicated to a male employee that he was armed with a weapon. The employee complied and gave the suspect an undisclosed amount of money.

According to Sgt. Tom Pine with the Bend Police Department, the robber exited the building in an unknown direction, and while police searched the area extensively they were unsuccessful in locating the man.

The suspect is described as a white male, 30-40 years old, 5-11 to 6 feet tall, having a medium to large build, with shoulder-length light brown hair.

Sgt. Pine encourages anyone with information regarding this case to contact the Bend Police Department at 322.2960.
