

Man found dead in Clackamas County Jail cell

by Cheryl McDermott

Detectives have classified the death of a 51-year old man found deceased in a Clackamas County Jail cell Sunday evening as "non-criminal in nature", although more details may become available following an autopsy.

Brian Truman Hebener was found deceased, alone, in a jail cell - CCJ photo Brian Truman Hebener was alone in the cell when he was discovered dead about 7:30 p.m., a little more than an hour after he was lodged, Clackamas County Sheriff's deputies reported.

Hebener had been arrested for second-degree criminal trespass and harassment by Oregon City Police officers, and was reportedly sleeping off a level of intoxication. The jail's web site indicated that Hebener was to be cited and released.

The Oregon State Medical Examiner will perform an autopsy to determine the cause of death.

Man found dead in Clackamas County Jail cell by Cheryl McDermott