

Three held in Bend residential burglary

by Cheryl McDermott

Three men were arrested Thursday for allegedly burglarizing a home in northwest Bend and taking snowboards and video components from the resident, who was home at the time, police reported.

Kyan Cameron Baird (left), Nathan Gene Shultz (center), Nicholas Edward Landon (right) - DCJ photos Bend Police Sgt. John Carlon said the suspects, all Bend residents, entered the residence of 19-year-old Patrick Van Vleet at 2318 NW Summerhill Drive without an invitation, while Van Vleet was home. They allegedly took items valued at $820, Carlon said.

Kyan Cameron Baird, 26; Nathan Gene Shultz, 24; and Nicholas Edward Landon, 22; were located by police and arrested at an unidentified residence in the southwest part of Bend.

All three men were lodged in the Deschutes County Jail, and face charges of first-degree burglary and theft, and second-degree robbery.

Three held in Bend residential burglary by Cheryl McDermott