

Cascade Harley-Davidson Sponsors Toy Drive for Charity

by Bend Weekly News Sources

Cascade Harley-Davidson and Buell announced today their annual Holiday Charity Drive to benefit St. Vincent de Paul. The public is invited to bring toys, clothes or food donations to Cascade Harley-Davidson until December 15 and receive 10% off select merchandise.

The annual Christmas Tree Lot opens December 1 and net proceeds will benefit local charities. For more information, visit www.cascadeharley.com, or call 541.330.6228.

About Cascade Harley-Davidson

After acquiring the dealership from Bears and Roses Harley-Davidson in August of 2006, changes were made in leaps and bounds intended to change the brand and create better experiences for customers. Cascade Harley-Davidson is dedicated to enhancing the experience of owning a Harley-Davidson or Buell Motorcycle. Better policies, tons of staff-training, and almost doubling the inventory has helped them achieve tremendous feedback from their customers.

Cascade Harley-Davidson is located at 63028 Sherman Road in Bend. They may be reached by phone at 330.6228 or by fax at 312.3734.
