

Driver killed in rollover crash south of Burns Junction

by Cheryl McDermott

A 21-year old man was killed Tuesday afternoon when he over-corrected and rolled his pickup after it drifted onto the shoulder of Highway 95 south of Burns Junction, Oregon.

The driver's name is being withheld pending notification of family members, Oregon State Police (OSP) reported.

According to a news release, the victim crashed about 2 p.m., February 19, near milepost 83.

He was pronounced dead at the scene.

Deputies with the Malheur County Sheriff's Office, Oregon Department of Transportation personnel, and local emergency medical responders assisted OSP on scene.

Troopers with the Ontario Area Command office are continuing an investigation.
