

COCC community learning registration begins Mar. 3

by Bend_Weekly_News_Sources

Registration for Central Oregon Community College's Community Learning spring classes begins Monday, March 3.

The schedule includes more than 250 new and regular noncredit offerings. New classes this term include: Hoop Dancing, Zumba Fitness, Create a Family Cookbook, Portland Performing Arts Tour, Green Building and Remodeling, Photographing Action, Cave Exploration and Eco Challenge, Landscape for Resale Appeal and Parenting Your Pet.

Classes in computers, fitness, business, language, gardening and art are held in Bend, La Pine, Madras, Prineville, Redmond and Sisters. Online courses in computers, language, writing, business, health care and personal development start every month.

Schedules are available at COCC, local chambers of commerce and libraries or on the Web. Students can register by mail, e-mail, fax, telephone, on the Web or in person. To register, fill out one of the registration forms in the back of the schedule, call 541-383-7270 or visit www.cocc.edu.

For more information, call 541-383-7256.
