

Girlfriend arrested in Milwaukie man's murder

by Cheryl McDermott

MILWAUKIE, Ore. — Police have released few details into the murder of a 48-year old man found dead of suspicious circumstances at a metal fabrication business on Thursday morning, but the victim's girlfriend has been arrested.

Suspect: Sonia Marie Ulness (left), Victim: Randy Lee Chipman (right) - MPD photos
Milwaukie Police took Sonia Marie Ulness, 40, into custody and charged her with a single count of murder. Ulness, reportedly in a domestic relationship with the victim, is being held in the Clackamas County Jail without bail. She is scheduled for arraignment Friday afternoon.

Randy Lee Chipman, 48, of Milwaukie, was found deceased at WW Metal Fab at 2200 SE Mailwell about 10:20 a.m., February 28. Police did not reveal the manner of his death.

Girlfriend arrested in Milwaukie man's murder by Cheryl McDermott