

Children arrested over school knife plot

by UPI

LEBANON, Conn. - Three elementary school children in Connecticut face prosecution for allegedly plotting to knife their bus driver, a report said. The Hartford (Conn.) Courant reported Monday that two 7-year-olds and an 8-year-old were arrested for the plot Friday and released to their parents. The children were charged with reckless endangerment, possession of a dangerous weapon and threatening and conspiracy to commit first-degree assault, police said. The three children have been suspended from Lebanon Elementary School.

Â© 2008 United Press International. All Rights Reserved.

Children arrested over school knife plot by UPI