He is a certified public accountant with extensive experience in consulting and accounting. Davidson earned a B.A. in biology from Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Maine prior to achieving his CPA certification.

—Peter is a thoughtful, bright, and passionate leader who has a strong record of accomplishments,— said Ken Provencher, president and chief executive officer of PacificSource Health Plans. —His expertise will help position PacificSource for continued success in the coming years.—

Davidson currently serves as a board member for a number of Lane County organizations. He currently serves on the Trillium Holding Company Medicare Advantage Product Board, Lane Transit District Budget Board, Lane Community College Foundation Board, and Lane County 100% Access Initiative Executive Committee. He is a member of the Medical Group Management Association.

In his new position, Davidson will direct the financial planning, accounting, investment, and reporting practices for PacificSource Health Plans and its subsidiaries. He will also provide executive oversight for the organization's legal and compliance, human resources, and planning and business development activities.
