

Madras man dies in motorcycle vs. pickup crash

by Cheryl McDermott

MADRAS, Ore. — A 51-year old Madras man died Saturday afternoon in a Bend hospital from injuries he received when his motorcycle was struck by a pickup in Madras, Oregon, on Highway 361, police reported.

Wayne Schjoll of Madras died at a Bend, Oregon hospital Saturday after a motorcycle vs. pickup crash on Culver Highway in Madras - OSP photo According to Oregon State Police (OSP) Sgt. Don Wagner, Wayne Schjoll, 51, of Madras, was riding his 1981 Honda motorcycle south on Culver Highway when the accident occurred about 1 p.m., April 12.

Schjoll's motorcycle was hit by a 1975 Chevrolet pickup driven by 28-year old Jeremy Pollock of Culver, Wagner said. Pollock was driving east on Belmont Lane and was turning onto Culver Highway at the intersection when his pickup collided with the cycle, the sergeant said.

Schjoll was first transported by ground ambulance to Mountain View Hospital in Madras, then later flown by air ambulance helicopter to St. Charles Medical Center in Bend. He later died, troopers reported.

Pollock was not injured, OSP reported, and Schjoll was wearing a helmet at the time of the crash.

Troopers from the Bend Area Command Office are continuing the investigation.

Madras man dies in motorcycle vs. pickup crash by Cheryl McDermott