

Bend teen arrested in adult novelty shop burglary

by Cheryl McDermott

BEND, Ore. — A 19-year-old Bend man was arrested Friday in connection with a burglary at an area adult-novelty shop earlier this month, police reported.

Travis Matthew Loeffel - DCJ photo

The Pretty Pussycat at 1341 NE Third Street was burglarized and several items stolen on Tuesday, May 6, Bend Police Lt. Gary Mack said.

An investigation led to Friday's arrest of Travis Matthew Loeffel, a 19-year-old Bend resident, who was lodged in the Deschutes County Jail and charged with second-degree burglary, a news release stated.

Several of the stolen items were recovered from Loeffel, Lt. Mack said.

Bend teen arrested in adult novelty shop burglary by Cheryl McDermott