BEND, Ore. — Police responding to a possible dispute between two roommates in southeast Bend on Monday discovered 4.5 pounds of marijuana, but the owner was only found to be out of compliance with the restriction of her Oregon Medical Marijuana permit.

Bend Police Sgt. Andy Homan said officers responded to a “civil standby” between Kelli Marie McCurdy and her roommate at 611 SE Roosevelt Avenue shortly after noon on March 2.

McCurdy, born in 1984, was found with 4.5 pounds of marijuana in her possession, far more than an Oregon Medical Marijuana permit allows. She was cited for one count of unlawful possession of marijuana and released, the sergeant said.
