

Now is the perfect time to de-winterize the boat

by Bend_Weekly_News_Sources

OREGON -- When the days get a little longer, that's the signal to dust off the cob webs and de-winterize your boat. The weather is about to take a turn from gray to sunny and it's a great feeling to have your boat and gear prepared for the first opportunity. The Oregon State Marine Board offers some reminders and suggestions for getting your boat ready for the first excursion this season.
