

OSU-Cascades Campus hosts FAFSA Night with COCC

by Bend_Weekly_News_Sources

BEND, Ore. -- Financial aid staff from Oregon State University's Cascades Campus and Central Oregon Community College (COCC) will host an afternoon and evening event to assist prospective college students and parents in completing the online Free Application for Federal Student Aid, which is the first step in seeking financial support for college.

Information about scholarships from OSU-Cascades and COCC will also be available. OSU-Cascades has awarded more than $1 million in scholarships since its inception in 2001.

Parents and students should bring 2008 tax forms, current value of assets, social security numbers and, for those who are not U.S. citizens, an alien registration card to the event.

The event will take place at Redmond High School from 3:30 to 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 22. Reservations are not necessary. For more information, visit www.OSUcascades.edu or call 541.322.3100.
