

COCC offers 'Getting Started' workshop

by Bend_Weekly_News_Sources

Central Oregon Community College is offering a "Getting Started" workshop at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, May 12, in the boardroom on the second floor of the Boyle Education Center on the Bend campus.

This is an opportunity for prospective students to meet with COCC and OSU-Cascades admissions representatives to find out about application requirements, financial aid and scholarships, student services and more.

Interested students can join in a Bend campus tour after the presentation. Reservations are not required.

For information, call 541-383-7500.

Persons who need accommodation or transportation for college events because of a physical or mobility disability, should contact ADA Coordinator Gene Zinkgraf at 541-383-7776 in advance of the event. Persons who need accommodation for college events because of other disabilities such as hearing impairment should contact Anne Walker at 541-383-7743 in advance of the event.
