As Oregon's only Sotheby International Realty Affiliate, Principal Broker Cate Cushman and Broker Debbie Tebbs are now involved in finalizing residential pricing for Remington Ranch home sites. Combined, Cushman and Tebbs have more than 30 years of real estate experience in Central Oregon, and will serve as primary contacts for all interested parties including individuals, brokers and realtors.

"Sotheby International Realty is the leading luxury real estate brokerage in the world and one of the most recognizable names in their field," said Chris Pippin, project manager for Remington Ranch. "Connecting Remington Ranch and Winchester Development with the reputation and prestige of the Sotheby name is a perfect fit for a project of this scope and quality."
