

Berkowitz got it right

by John Lanning

Bill Berkowitz's "The mouth that roars" (Jan. 26) is another very good and informative article! I believe Bill showed nicely the nexus of the war propaganda machine being active both foreign and domestic. Do (sic) in great part to efforts of folks such as he at getting the truth in print, the naive and foolish people which have been duped by this war propaganda for the past many years are finally coming around to seeing the light! Good article!
