G-Unit's Southern Soldier Young Buck will release his sophomore solo album, Buck The World, on March 20th 2007. It's been two and a half years since the Tennessee titan released his platinum plus solo debut Straight Outta Cashville and he is more than ready to prove it was worth the wait.

Buck The World is loaded with bangers like the first single "I Know You Want Me" and the rowdy follow up single "Get Buck." The album features production by some of the most talented producers in the game, Eminem, Dr. Dre, 50 Cent, Hi-Tek and Jazze Pha. Guest appearances include Snoop Dogg, TI, 8Ball and Bun B to name a few.

"I think I created a masterpiece here. You know you have to reinvent yourself every time you come out. I put my heart in it and I think my fans are gonna love it. I even did a song with Chester Bennington from Linkin Park. I'm telling you this album is crazy," states Young Buck. The album was co-executive produced by 50 Cent and Sha Money XL.

In addition to giving great music, Young Buck has been giving back to his community through The G-Unity Foundation. Recently he surprised The Boys & Girls Clubs of Middle Tennessee with a $15,000 donation for their Extreme Game Room Makeover. In November 2006 he also continued with his support of the Nashville Alliance for Public Education and the Fannie Battle Day Home for Children.
