by Bend Weekly News Sources

All new Hollywood hits and fan favorites make up highly anticipated follow up to top-selling Scene It? the DVD game

They hold box office records, Oscar wins, and the hearts of fans worldwide. Now films such as The Devil Wears Prada, King Kong and Anchorman: The Legend of Ron Burgundy can be found in Scene It? Movie 2nd Edition, the highly anticipated sequel to the breakout DVD game that launched a trivia revolution.

"Several wildly popular films have been released since we introduced the original movie edition of the Scene It? game," said Dave Long, Screenlife CEO and unquestionable film fanatic. "The opportunity to bring a whole new generation of movies to our audience is very exciting, as long as Hollywood continues to make great movies, we'll continue to make great games."

All new content, with all the fun of the original, Scene It? Movie 2nd Edition features real movie clips, trivia questions and puzzlers sure to entertain both 'reel' fans and casual watchers. Ideal for parties and casual gatherings, everyone will enjoy reliving moments from Oceans 11, The Da Vinci Code and Walk the Line as you race each other around the board for the chance to make the Final Cut and win the game.

Also joining Screenlife's expanding list of popular games will be Scene It? Harry Potter 2nd Edition, which includes content from Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix.

Scene It? Movie 2nd Edition and other 2nd Edition games, will be available this summer at retail stores nationwide, or online at www.screenlifegames.com.
