

Ralston360 Adds new Graphic Designer

by Bend Weekly News Sources

Adelle Dittman has joined Bend-headquartered ad agency Ralston360 as Graphic Designer. Dittman has worked as a freelance artist since moving to Bend a year and a half ago. Previously, she served as a graphic designer at Portland, Oregon ad agency Kauffman & Associates. Dittman holds a Bachelor's degree in Graphic Design from Portland State University. She will work on the production of print advertising and collateral from Ralston360's Bend office. Ralston360 is a full-service advertising agency. Founded in 1986, it serves regional and national clients from its offices in Bend and San Francisco.
