A 39-year old woman escaped with only minor injuries in a single-vehicle rollover crash northwest of Prineville Monday morning, authorities reported.

Linda Lee Hunt lost control of her 1992 Subaru Legacy about 9:10 a.m. February 19, on NW Grimes Road and east of Highway 26, said detective Sergeant Travis Jurgens of the Crook County Sheriff's Office. Her vehicle left the road and rolled down an embankment.

Hunt was transported by ambulance to Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Prineville with reportedly minor injuries. Sgt. Jurgens did not estimate damages to Hunt's vehicle, but said the fence sustained about $100 in damage.

No citations were issued, Jurgens said.
