Jive Records recording artist Justin Timberlake returns back to #1 on the Billboard Hot 100 Singles chart with his latest hit single "What Goes Around ... Comes Around." With this release Justin Timberlake enjoys his third straight #1 from his smash album FutureSex/LoveSounds.

"What Goes Around ... Comes Around" follows in the footsteps of his hits "My Love" featuring T.I. and "Sexyback" featuring Timbaland and continues his domination on the charts worldwide. The video for "What Goes Around ... Comes Around" was recently released on iTunes, and during the first four days on iTunes, fans purchased and downloaded the video in excess of over 50,000 downloads and broke all records.

Recently Justin Timberlake took home two GRAMMY awards, one for "Best Rap/Sung Collaboration" for "My Love" featuring T.I., and one for "Best Dance Recording" for "Sexyback" featuring Timbaland. Justin also just won "Best International Male" at the 2007 Brit Awards, "Best International Male Artist" at the 2007 NRJ Awards, and has been nominated for International Album of the Year at the 2007 JUNO awards. Additionally the non-stop musician and showman continues on his worldwide FutureSex/LoveShow tour and is knocking out audiences and critics alike and to top it all off he will be hosting the Kids Choice Awards on March 31st.

The nearly five million worldwide selling album, FutureSex/LoveSounds, co-written and co-produced by Justin Timberlake, hit #1 on the Billboard charts and broke all digital album sales records. The hit single "SexyBack" featuring Timbaland, along with the second single "My Love" featuring T.I. and the current release "What Goes Around ... Comes Around" brings Justin to a record breaking level. According to R&R magazine, since the CHR/Top 40 chart began in 1992, Justin Timberlake sets the record for a lead male artist as his latest single becomes his seventh consecutive top 10 smash. Additional producers on the album include JAWBreakers, Timbaland and Rick Rubin.
