

Central Oregon high schools shine at OHSET meet

by Bend_Weekly_News_Sources

In the first meet of the season for the Central District of the Oregon High School Equestrian Teams (OHSET), Redmond, Bend, and Dufur High Schools took home first-place team honors in the large, medium, and small school divisions.

Kymala Lovisone of Bend High School placed 9th in breakaway. Photos provided by Kathy Russell. (left to right) Samantha Marsh, Kassandra Russell, Emily Pickering planning strategy before participating in the team penning event. They placed 3rd. Alicia Wyman of Summitâ€™s Team A, who came in 13th for Canadian Flags. Held February 16-18 at the Deschutes County Fair & Expo Center in Redmond, about 160 riders competed in 25 events. The Central District is comprised of 18 different schools: Sisters, La Pine, Madras, Culver, Paisley, Redmond, Bend, Mountain View, Summit, Central Christian, Sherman, The Dalles/Wahtonka, Dufur, Crook, Pendleton, Lakeview, Hood River and Hermiston.

The next meet is scheduled for March 30-April 1 at the Deschutes County Fairgrounds, and the public is invited to attend at no charge.
