

Oregon State 2, Rice 0 - OSU Will Play For Baseball National Title

by Bend Weekly News Sources

Oregon State's Jonah Nickerson allowed only two hits in 7 2/3 innings as the Beavers (48-15 overall) beat Rice 2-0 in Thursday's game at Rosenblatt Stadium, advancing to the championship series of the College World Series.

Jonah Nickerson allowed only 2 hits during 7 2/3 innings in Thursday's game against Rice. Oregon State will play No. 9 North Carolina in a best-of-three series for the national championship series that begins Saturday at 4 pm. The championship continues Sunday at 4 pm, and if a third game is necessary will conclude Monday.

OSU head coach Pat Casey said Nickerson, the right-handed pitcher from Oregon City, did an outstanding job considering Nickerson had pitched 7 innings on Monday.

The first and third games will be televised on cable's ESPN, and the second game will be shown on ESPN2.
