

Bomb threat prompts evacuation of Elton Gregory Middle School

by Cheryl McDermott

A bomb threat found written on the wall of the boys'™ bathroom at Elton Gregory Middle School in Redmond prompted an immediate evacuation of students and staff Thursday afternoon, police reported.

Elton Gregory Middle School, Redmond, Oregon

Redmond Police Officers responded to the school at 1220 NW Upas after a message was found indicating an impending detonation at 2:15 p.m.

A thorough search was conducted, Lt. Jason Rogers reported. "No explosive devices or suspicion items were found", he said, adding "nor has the individual or individuals responsible for the note been identified".

Redmond police are continuing the investigation, and ask anyone with information about the incident to contact them at 541.504.3400, or call dispatch at 541.693.6911.

Bomb threat prompts evacuation of Elton Gregory Middle School by Cheryl McDermott