Actress Nora Zehetner and comedians Tom Arnold and Dax Shepard will soon embark a USO/Armed Forces Entertainment tour to the Persian Gulf region. The trio will meet with service members and sign autographs. Arnold and Shepard will also perform their stand-up comedy routines during the visit.

Best known for her role as Eden McCain on NBC's "Heroes," Zehetner has been acting since she was 18. Her recent credits include films such as "Brick," "Conversations with Other Women" and "50 Pills."

Most recently serving as co-host of Fox Sports Net's "Best Damn Sports Show Period," Tom Arnold has long been a staple of the movie and television industry. His most recent credits include roles in "Happy Endings" and "Pride." Past movie credits include "True Lies," "Nine Months," and "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery."

After starring as Ashton Kutcher's sidekick in MTV's television hit "Punk'd," Dax Shepard has gone on to the big screen, starring in "Employee of the month," "Idiocracy" and "Without A Paddle." In addition, he will star in "Let's Go to Prison."

This tour continues the USO/Armed Forces Entertainment tradition of bringing celebrities to troops stationed far from home. Entertainers who recently participated in USO tours include Five For Fighting, Gary Sinise, Jo Dee Messina, Wilmer Valderrama, Darryl Worley, Drowning Pool, David Alan Grier and Shinedown.

USO tours are sponsored by AT&T, Inc., the official telecommunications sponsor of USO entertainment tours.
