

Redmond High School announces casting call for pup to play Toto

by Bend_Weekly_News_Sources

Is your dog the best-behaved and well-mannered dog in Central Oregon? Is he or she a dead ringer for Toto from The Wizard of Oz? Do your friends always say your dog should be in the movies, in commercials, or on stage? Well, here's your chance. Redmond High School (RHS) will be presenting the musical version of The Wizard of Oz May 17th to May 20th and they are looking for that one special "Toto" to complete the cast.

Well, here's your chance. Redmond High School (RHS) will be presenting the musical version of The Wizard of Oz May 17th to May 20th and they are looking for that one special "Toto" to complete the cast.

RHS will be holding an open casting call for that one unique dog to rehearse and play Toto in their production. Auditions will be held from 10 a.m. to noon on Saturday, April 7, in the RHS Auditorium at 675 SW Rimrock Drive in Redmond.

For more information, contact Phil Neely with RHS Theatre Department at 541.923.4800, ext. 332.
