

Sunriver Resort names new HR Director

by Bend_Weekly_News_Sources

SUNRIVER, Oregon -- Gwenn Wysling has been named Director of Human Resources at Sunriver Resort, a Destination Hotels & Resorts property. Wysling has over 20 years of hospitality experience, both in operations and as a human resource professional. Gwenn Wysling is the new HR director at Sunriver Resort. Prior to her arrival at Sunriver Resort, she was the regional human resources director for International Coffee & Tea, LLC. Wysling began her human resources career as the director of human resources for Berkeley Marina Marriot (378 rooms, meeting and convention center). She also worked for New World Restaurant Group, Inc. as the director of people services for seven years. "The breadth of Gwenn's professional experience and personal integrity will combine to pave a path of success at Sunriver Resort. It is our good fortune that Gwenn and her husband have chosen Central Oregon as their new home," says Brian Hughes, general manager. Wysling earned her bachelor's degree from Washington State University in Pullman, Wash. She and her husband recently moved to Bend, Oregon from Los Angeles, Calif. ABOUT SUNRIVER RESORT The Heart & Soul of the Great Northwest, Sunriver Resort is a year-round outdoor enthusiast's dream with 54 holes of championship golf, 28 tennis courts, 35 miles of paved bike paths, three swimming complexes, horseback riding, canoeing and kayaking from the property's marina, fly fishing, skiing and snowboarding at Mt. Bachelor Ski Resort, cross-country skiing and snowshoeing. Plus, there's the resort's Sage Springs Spa, first-class programs for youths and teens, a nearby shopping village and nature center. The JELD-WEN Tradition, Oregon's biggest golf event and one of five major championships on the Champions Tour, will be held Aug. 13-19 at Sunriver Resort's Crosswater Golf Club, one of GOLF Magazine's "Top 100 You Can Play."

Sunriver Resort names new HR Director by Bend_Weekly_News_Sources