

Western Title & Escrow Receives Affiliate Title Company Of The Year Award

by Bend Weekly News Sources

Oregon Association Of Mortgage Professionals Honors Company Western Title & Escrow has been recognized as Affiliate Title Company of the Year Award by the Oregon Association of Mortgage Professionals. The award was announced and presented at OAMP's 17th Annual Awards Gala & Dinner, which was recently held in Portland. Nominees were selected by a committee that included OAMP President Joe Camarena, two previous award winners, and two OAMP staff members. Winners in 16 categories were determined based on their involvement and participation in OAMP programs throughout the State. "We encourage and expect our team to take an active role in supporting organizations such as OAMP," said George Slape, President and CEO of Western Title & Escrow. "This honor is a direct reflection of the people at Western Title who interact with mortgage professionals on a daily basis, and who represent our company with pride within our industry, in affiliated industries and in the community." The Oregon Association of Mortgage Professionals represents the mortgage industry of more than 10,000 individuals in Oregon, promoting the mortgage industry through programs and services such as education, government affairs representation, networking events and local chapters. As one of the largest privately held Oregon-based title and escrow companies, Western Title & Escrow has 15 locations across the State. Headquartered in Bend, Oregon, the company has more than 250 employees.
