

Public invited to LWV discussion on family drug court

by Bend_Weekly_News_Sources

Judge Alta Brady will speak May 1st

The League of Women Voters invites the public to hear Judge Alta Brady discuss the new court which was started to hear drug cases in a family court environment.

The luncheon will be on Thursday, May 3rd, at the Hong Kong Restaurant at 11:30 a.m. with the speaker beginning at noon. The Hong Kong Restaurant is located on the Corner of SE Third and Wilson in Bend. Purchasing lunch is not required.

The League of Women Voters is a grassroots, nonpartisan political organization which encourages the informed and active participation of citizens in government in order to build better communities statewide.
