Redmond Police have arrested two men, one a Redmond resident and the other of Prineville, in connection with the rape and strangulation of a 19 year old Redmond woman. According to Detective Lt. Wayne Shortreed, on Sunday July 23rd shortly after 10 pm officers responded to a report of a possible rape by two known suspects.

Patrol officers investigated the scene at NW 8th and NW Birch in Redmond and called detectives for assistance, said Shortreed.

Further investigation resulted in the arrest of Jose Roberto Herrera, 20, of Redmond for first-degree rape. Jeremy Landon Dubisar, 20, of Prineville was arrested for rape, strangulation, aggravated harassment, and fourth-degree assault. Both suspects were lodged in the Deschutes County Jail.
