Congressman to hold roundtable talks with Meth Action Coalition

Congressman Greg Walden (R-Ore.) will visit Central Oregon for a speaking engagement with the Redmond Rotary and for a roundtable meeting with the Deschutes County Meth Action Coalition (MAC). Congressman Walden will be in the midst of a District swing during the Independence Day District Work Period. On Tuesday, July 3 he will be in southern Oregon to conduct town halls in Medford and Grants Pass. He will also hold town halls on July 14 in Ontario and Prineville. The Prineville town hall will be held at the County Meeting Room from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Congressman Walden has held seven town hall meetings on methamphetamine use in central, southern and eastern Oregon and considers providing federal tools to get control of its use a top priority. He will provide an update of what is happening in Washington, D.C. to help fight this devastating scourge and receive updates from the diverse group of local leaders. Attached is the letter he wrote to participants of the MAC's Meth Summit on June 18.
