

Renegade Rollergirls Hold First Bout Sept. 16

by Bend Weekly News Sources

Skull Rollers vs Wicked Pussycats to benefit COBRA

The Renegade Rollergirls will hold their first indoor bout September 16 to launch the new central Oregon roller derby league. The Wicked Pussycats will battle it out against the Skull Rollers at 7 p.m. A portion of ticket sales will benefit Central Oregon Battery & Rape Alliance (COBRA), a shelter that supports victims of domestic violence. Families and all ages are welcome.

The Renegade Rollergirls are an eclectic group of ambitious, rough and tumble women spanning age, economic and racial boundaries while fostering our unified goal of entertaining Bend with extreme roller derby athletics.

Their Renegade predecessors in Arizona formed their league in the summer of 2004 from a group of the top skaters in Arizona. The league prides itself on high ethical procedures, organizational structure, and all-around skater well being. Along with the Arizona league and a second sister league in San Diego, the Bend league wishes to pursue the same goals and visions of reviving the sport of roller derby. Anytime, any place, any surface.
