

Heidi Berkman joins Tetherow

by Bend_Weekly_News_Sources

Heidi Berkman has been named Marketing & Events Manager of Tetherow, Bend's new golf resort community. In her new role, Berkman will assist the sales and marketing team and head up future events and customer experience programs.

Heidi Berkman previously was the Marketing Director for The Shops at the Old Mill District. She is active in the Bend community, working with the Bend Venture Conference, the City Club of Central Oregon, EDCO, Bend Chamber and Humane Society of Central Oregon.

Tetherow is a 700-acre resort community currently under development on Bend's West Side. It will include an 18-hole private resort golf course designed by David McLay Kidd, renowned architect of Bandon Dunes and the Seventh course at St. Andrews, Scotland, a members' clubhouse, a luxury hotel and spa, restaurant, meeting space single-family homes, Lodge Homes and Lodge Cabins, and townhomes. For information, visit Tetherow.com or call 541.318.1234.
