Drug agents seized over 19 grams of cocaine and arrested a 26-year old man during a raid on a northwest Redmond home Monday afternoon. Officials said more arrests are anticipated as a result of an ongoing investigation.

Brian Daniel Spohn - DCJ photo Brian Daniel Spohn of 3880 NW Xavier was taken into custody without incident when Central Oregon Drug Enforcement (CODE) team members executed a search warrant at 3 p.m. on August 6, Lt. John Gautney reported.

In addition to the cocaine, which has an estimated street value of about $1,900, detectives seized weight scales and packaging materials, the lieutenant wrote in a news release.
