

Suspect jailed in Terrebonne sledgehammer attack

by Cheryl McDermott

A 45-year old Redmond man was arrested Friday morning for allegedly attacking his supervisor with a sledgehammer at a home construction site in Terrebonne, deputies reported.

Kenneth Keys - DCJ photo Deschutes County Sheriff's deputies responded to a report of an assault at the construction site near the intersection of NW 13th Street and Foss Drive in Terrebonne about 7:30 a.m., August 24, Sgt. Chad Davis wrote in a news release.

Investigation determined that earlier in the day the suspect, Kenneth Keys, 45, of Redmond, had a verbal altercation with his supervisor. Keys approached the victim, 30-year old Joseph Andrew Post, also of Redmond, carrying a sledgehammer, the sergeant said. Keys allegedly hit Post in the back with the weapon, then was restrained by another worker who took the sledgehammer from him. He left the jobsite on foot, Davis reported.

Post was treated then released from St. Charles Medical Center in Redmond for injuries sustained in the attack.

Keys was later taken into custody and lodged in the Deschutes County Jail with bail set at $55,000. According to a news release, he is charged with second-degree assault (a Class B felony), and unlawful use of a weapon (a Class C felony).

Suspect jailed in Terrebonne sledgehammer attack by Cheryl McDermott