

One arrested in Redmond Papa Murphysâ€™ Pizza embezzlement

by Cheryl McDermott

A 44-year old woman who worked as manager and assistant manager of the Papa Murphyâ€™s Take-and-Bake Pizza in southwest Redmond has been arrested for allegedly embezzling between $70,000 and $80,000 from the business in 2006.

Cynthia Lee Buck - DCJ photo Cynthia Lee Buck of 2816 SW 28th Street in Redmond was taken into custody and lodged in the Deschutes County Jail last week following an investigation into activities that occurred between August and December of last year at the Papa Murphyâ€™s 955 SW Highland location, Redmond Police Detective Sgt. Mike Kidwell said.

Buck was charged with three counts of first-degree aggravated theft and two counts of first-degree theft, the news release stated.

One arrested in Redmond Papa Murphysâ€™ Pizza embezzlement by Cheryl McDermott