

Death toll hits 11 for Tunisia storms

by UPI

TUNIS, Tunisia -- The death toll rose to 11 Monday following a weekend storm that dropped torrential rains to many regions of Tunisia. The latest victims were found by rescue workers in muddy waters northwest of the capital of Tunis, Algeria Presse Service reported. Rescue efforts continued for five other people missing in the Sabalet Ben Ammar area of the North African nation.

Copyright © 2007, by United Press International. All Rights Reserved.

Death toll hits 11 for Tunisia storms by UPI