Shots were fired into the parking lot of an apartment complex in southeast Bend Saturday night before a 31-year old man fatally turned the gun on himself, police reported.

Shortly before 10:40 p.m. on October 20, Bend Police officers were called to 20240 SE Reed Lane to the report of shots fired, Lt. Ken Stenkamp said.

Officers heard gunfire and saw David B. Winter, 31, throwing personal property from his apartment into the parking lot as they arrived, the lieutenant reported. Winter left his apartment and walked into the lot, shooting himself beside a vehicle belonging to a neighbor that had been peppered with gun shots.

Winter died at the scene, Stenkamp said, adding that no other injuries were reported.
